What you'll need for your application

When the Eventotron portal opens on 20 August, we'll ask for some basic information about your event. Most of these details can be updated later.

Event Details

- Event title
- Event category (Music, Theatre, Comedy, Visual Arts, Art Trail, Workshop, Literature, Film, Social Impact)
- A short event description (maximum 40 words, excluding the title)

Venue

Tell us where you'd like to present your event.

We have limited access to venues and can offer suggestions, but we strongly encourage you to start conversations with potential venues now and secure a space where possible.

Audience

Help us understand your event by telling us:

- Who is it for?
- What age group?
- What time of day is it best suited to?

Production

- Technical requirements (lighting, sound, projection etc.)
- Ticket prices
- Accessibility information or requirements

Images

You'll also need a high-quality promotional image that captures your event and helps sell it in our printed program, website and marketing.

Don't stress!

Your application doesn't need to be perfect.

Descriptions, ticket prices, venues and other details can all be updated as your plans develop. The most important thing is letting us know you're planning to be part of Castlemaine Fringe 2027.

What happens next?

After applications close, we'll begin venue allocations and scheduling before confirming your event details.

We can't wait to see the amazing ideas our community brings to Castlemaine Fringe Festival 2027!
